Toeo Botkin, Z. L. Wise, John Roberts, Uncle Jake Winne, Judge (?) Recksecker and R. A. Campbell.

Wise was chairman of the convenwhile John Roberts stood at the out- heresy. skirts of the crowd and applauded everything that these gentlemen did. While Wise is not much of a partisan in his speeches, he is put in the field to look after Mr. Fall's chances for next year. We want our populists friends to go out to hear these fellows, and es pecually do we want the free silver republicans to go. After listening to anyone of them, if they are not con vinced that a free silver man has no place in that party, he had better drop his free silver ideas. In fact, he is not affected with the doctrine enough to hort him,
